ANNOUNCEMENTS

BREED THEATRE
Harold Lockwood and May Allison in The River of Romance, a Metro Wonderplay Feature for Today.

The River of Romance, a thrilling story of adventure and novel situations with Harold Lockwood and May Allison, the popular stars in the starring roles in the feature of the Breed theatre for today and Saturday.
This is a five part Metro wonder-play, produced by the York Film Corporation, which assures an attraction of premier importance. The Thousand Islands in the St. Lawrence river was the principal background used in photographing the many colorful and picturesque scenes in The River of Romance. While the country estate of Otto arranged to use the famous castle of George D. Boldt, the manager of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, to stage the beautiful and charming millions, who owns one of the largest islands in the St. Lawrence river, to these locations many other beautiful places were used in staging some of the scenes.

The hero, William Kelling (Harold Lockwood), an heir to millions, starts to demonstrate his own make money on his own account, with the aid of a decrepit one-cylinder motor boat. His patrons, ignorant of his identity, think he is a character. To the regions of the St. Lawrence and the Thousand Islands come the beautiful and charming millions, who owns one of the largest islands in the St. Lawrence river, to
the scenes.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.
Complete Change of Program Today.

For Friday and Saturday at the Auditorium the Cornelia Musical Comedy Co. will present Keep Moving, a musical show reported to be quite entertaining as the two bills already shown by this clever company of entertainers.

The plot of Keep Moving is laid in a young ladies' academy presided over by one Michael Clancy, an Irishman, who becomes head of the school, through having bought the premises.
As may be supposed Clancy is a character quite unimpaired by the school, occupies and his efforts to impart knowledge to the youthful mind are very amusing. The plot is complicated by the pursuit of a party of riders by the local sheriff and the arrival of a French dancer who had made the acquaintance of Clancy on the previous evening. Other amusing incidents keep the laughter going throughout the play. Many dancing numbers and specialties are introduced, including selections by the Garden City Four.

Among the novelties are a Mother Goose number by Peggy Dunn, Nonsense songs by Lillian Washburn, Clancy by Fred Cornish, Alkanzar and a Champagne finale by the entire company, some fifteen singing numbers giving the performance a stuperb musical program and the play includes several comedy characters who contribute much to the laughter of the show.

On the picture program today will be the five-reel Paramount feature, George Hobbie, a musical comedy, interesting and amusing, in which George Hobbie appears in his best.
The second episode of the Best-sellers Fairfax series will also be shown.

The Blue Envelope Coming to the Davis.

The predicament of one fat man to whom not only anything, but everything happened is most amusingly displayed in the three act musical comedy of Richard Lambert's production of The Blue Envelope, the farce which stained success during the latter part of the past season at the Court theatre, New York. Mr. Lambert will present his Court theatre organization, headed by those two eminent farceurs, Edward Garvie and Carrie Reynolds, at the Davis theatre Tuesday evening, Oct. 3. The play will be seen here in its best form as only one company has been sent out for, and for this reason should prove the heartiest reception from thousands of the audience who have so often witnessed the disappointing performances of metropolitan success given by inferior casts on tour. Both Mr. Garvie and Miss Reynolds have gained an enormous following by their superior playing of comedy roles, and in The Blue Envelope each has an ideal role.
The balance of the excellent cast includes Ralph Nairn, Beth Franklin, John L. Kearney, Lizzie Wilson, Lector Browne, Caroline Leonard, Francis George, John P. Mackwey, Belle Theodore and Ford Penmore. Prices 85c to $1.50. Seats on sale today at 10 a. m.

BIG FEATURE FILM AT
Y. M. C. A. TONIGHT.

Many will recall the triumphant tour of this country several years ago by Salvini, Italy's famous tragedian. They will be interested to learn that he will be seen at the Y. M. C. A. in a big feature film, Pilgrim's Progress, tonight and tomorrow night, with Saturday matinee.

Those who have seen this remarkable movie declare that Salvini's work in portrayal of the Christian's allegorical experiences is the masterpiece of Salvini. A fortune was spent by the makers of the film, the Ambrosio company, of Torino, Italy, in order to satisfy the demands of the sponsors of the movement to have the "counterpart of the scriptures visualized resolutely and adequately, but not melodramatically, and without doing violence to the spirit and letter of the book, which is still the world's best work, excepting the Bible.

Thousands who have not read William's Progress since childhood will be delighted to refresh their memory of the Blough of Despond, the House of Interpretation, the Palace Beautiful, Vanity Fair, Giant Despair, the Victory over Apollyon and the final entrance into the Celestial City. The pictures bring back and vivify all these scenes and events which have electrified millions of readers during the last 250 years since Bunyan wrote the dream in the cell at Bedford Jail.
Explaining the symbolism of the novelty tale, Co. Frederick Ray of London features a graphic lecture, every word of which, together with a few incidental music on the piano, is unaccompanied with the action on the screen. It is a very unique presentation and is never given in theatres, but altogether under religious and educational auspices. Colonel Ray brings his own machine and operator.

Admission admitted for 25c; children 10c to please. Tickets are on sale at Y. M. C. A.

COMPULSORY PHYSICAL TRAINING IN SCHOOLS
Course of 20 Minutes a Day Prescribed by New York Law.

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 28.—The compulsory physical training requirements for pupils in the secondary schools of New York state were announced here today by Dr. John B. Finley, state commissioner of education and a member of the military training commission. One of the most startling requirements is that coaches and trainers in all branches of athletics must be teachers in the schools. This would bar coaches and trainers from the secondary schools.
Another provision intended to prevent excessive training is that it must not exceed six hours a week and can be substituted for play only on the basis of pleasure and health and not primarily to win victories or make athletic records. No pupil will be permitted membership on more than one athletic team during a single athletic season.
The physical training course will be of twenty minutes duration a day, the minimum prescribed by law.

BICYCLE THIEF RETURNS THREE STOLEN WHEELS Shipped Them From Worcester to Meriden, Charges Prepaid.

Meriden, Conn., Sept. 28.—Chief of Police Charles B. Bowen was given a surprise today when an express company delivered three bicycles to the city. The bicycles were stolen last Monday from a shed where employees of a local concern kept their wheels. The bicycles had been shipped, charges prepaid, from Worcester, Mass.
